Faces in the Crowd

LIONS' PRIDE

Mr. Youngerman,
Well, Before coming into this class, I had heard all about it. The kind of things that scare you: you know? It was different. You tolerated all the nuts in this class like noone could.
Its been a good year of chemistry; if you could possible say that.
Thanks,
Scott Semmes

Mr. Youngerman
it's been a great year having Chemistry. I really enjoyed your class even though it wasn't as easy as pie. You taught me alot, which will be helpful in my future college Chemistry.
Thanks alot,
Kim Rinehelder

Mr. Youngerman,
I congratulate you for surviving our normal, quiet class as a very confident, mature, and charming group of individuals. Next year I am sure you will have to deal with a more boisterous, rowdy, and unruly group of students. Maybe you'll remember us, well always remember you.
Love always,
Your Biosonette
Mark Vanderwarker

Mr. Youngerman,
Thanks for everything, I will come around, good luck and maybe one day I'll be a doctor - Good luck in the future.
Sincerely,
Richard Stark

Mr. Youngerman,
Thanks for the glad MR. Youngerman for the glad together again. It have me next 2nd year. I want to have me next year. But seriously, I learned last year chemistry really class enough of my even not one of my was better subjects. Having for homeroom always you in the good luck me. up Chris good luck incoming freshmen + if you in the Freshmen may breeher ever have my to him as be as nice to me. were Love

GOOD LUCK, (HEY)
Chris
Pulos

Mr. Youngerman,
I must tell you,
it has been a real experience in this class. But overall, it wasn't really that bad. Besides, you still sane, aren't you!? Thanks for all the help, I really appreciate it, & hope I can come back next year and help some other lucky people.
Always,
Marie Bergman

Mr. Youngerman,

It's really been nice knowing you and I hope to see you next year.
Thank-you for all the help You've given me, I have learned a lot. Good-luck in the future

Kelly Shaw

Mr. Youngerman,
I have to admit that Chemistry is my weaker science but its a learning experience I won't forget. May the future Chemistry bring you bigger and better Chemistry classes so you won't have to work so hard.
Take it easy & much love,
Carol Chato

Mr. Youngerman,
I have enjoyed this class, even though I've had some trouble. I hope I can improve. I've learned something at least. Good luck in the future and stay nice. Rhonda Mundy

Mr. Youngerman.
I had your class last year, and whether I liked it or not, I learned from it. Chem I was the first rung on a large ladder to reach my goal of vet. medicine. Thank you. I learned I can't wish my way through science. I'll have to work. The best always. Crystal Wilson

Mr Youngerman,
In a few short words:
★ ? ~ ⑨ % ! Your class, seriously, was..... was..... an interesting experience. Thanks for a good year of chemistry. I think I learned alot. Good luck in the coming years.
Paul R. Burto

Mr. Youngerman,
Some people do not realize what a great help you have been.
I am sure next year will very easy in Chemistry. (It better be)!
I have enjoyed my Senior year tremendously. Good luck in the future with Mitt.. Scott Flagel

Mr. Youngerman,

To a very nice teacher whom I will miss very much next year. Even though Chemistry wasn't my subject - I did learn quite alot from yall. It has been great having you for a teacher. I will come back next year to visit.

Love always
Lisa Sanders

Mr. Youngerman,

To A very nice homeroom teacher who gives us same slack when we're late. I never forget this homeroom. And I'll never forget you. R.M.A. In the years to come you might have a real boy fun. Fun! Huh? Well, keep your good looks when you acquired from your son! Ha Ha Ha!

We all begin as faces in the crowd . . .
each face a tiny insignificant mirror which in a crowd seems only to reflect each other.

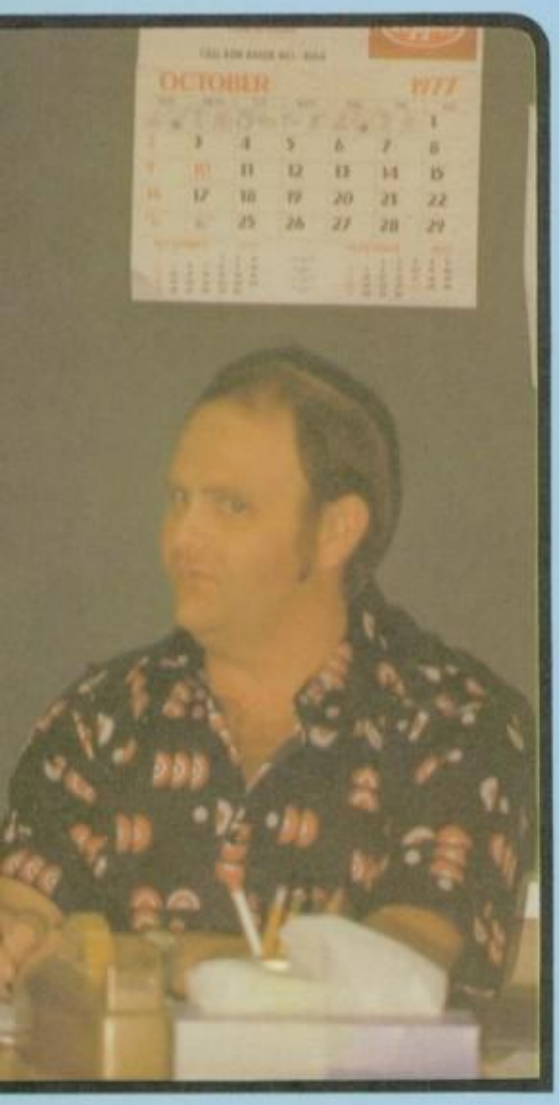
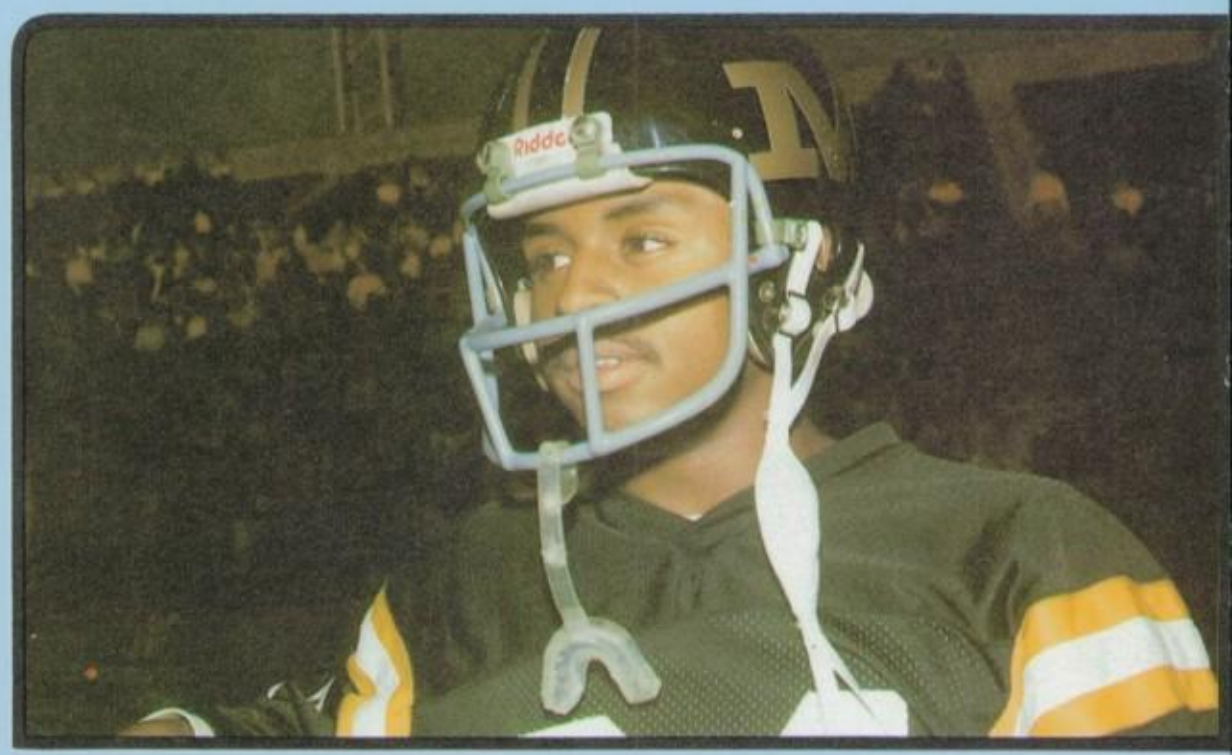
But taken individually the face becomes a reflection of our likes and dislikes, our hopes and dreams.





Wrinkled with rigid growth or innocently yet unformed, our expressions portray smiles of happiness or tears of despair.

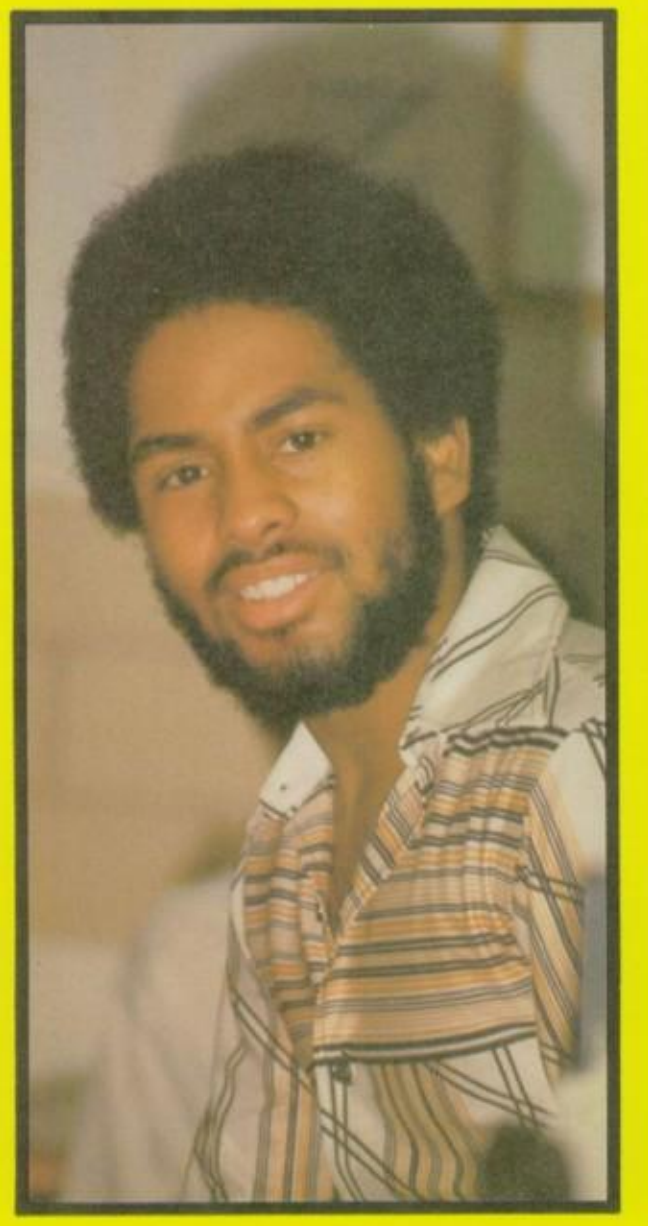
RESERVE



Radiating with curiosity, the face searches for understanding of the surrounding world.

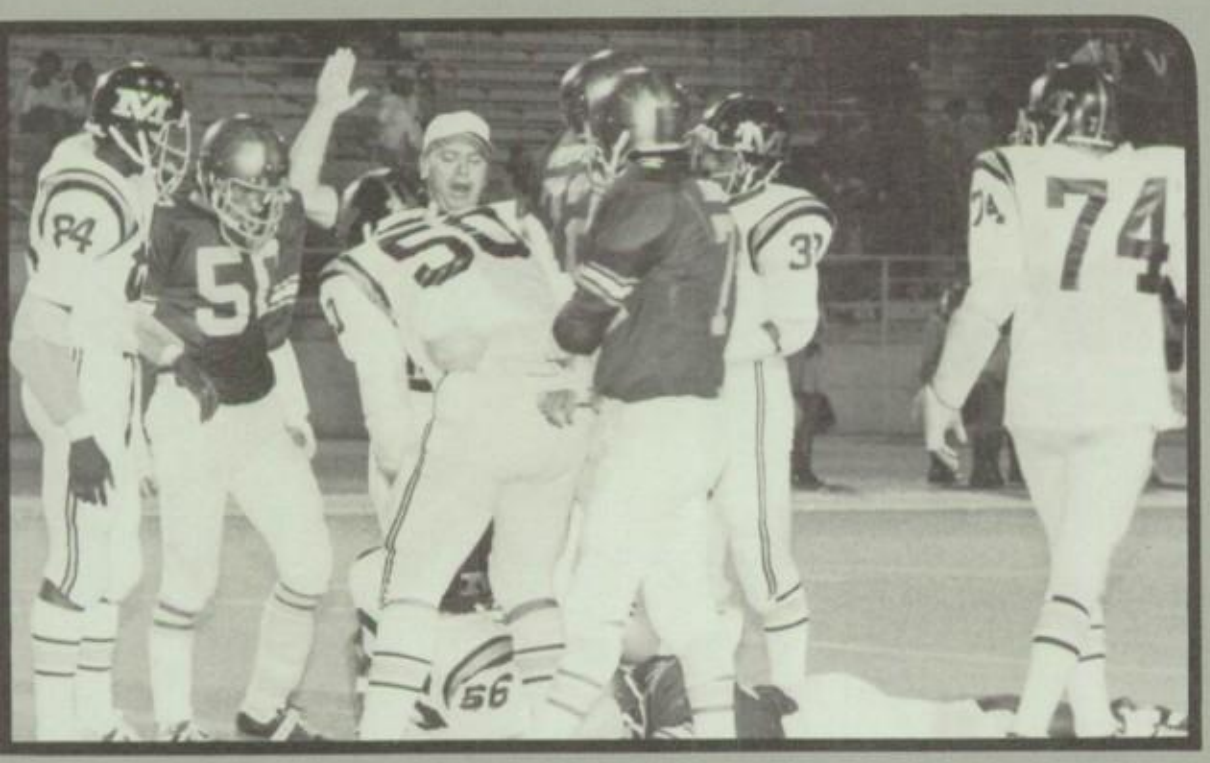
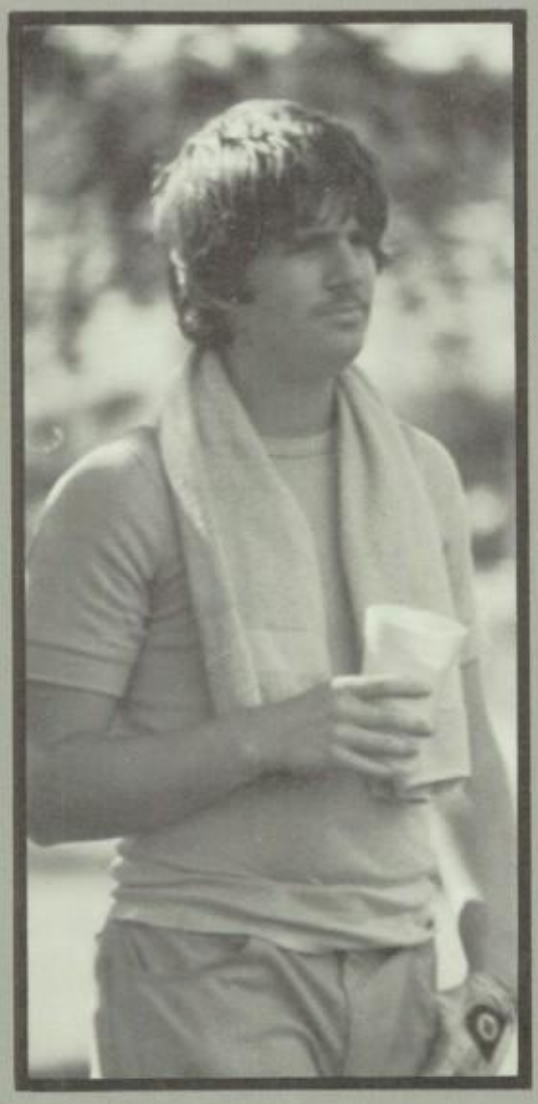
But most of all the face can reflect a plead of determination to achieve our fullest potentials.





We are all faces in the crowd, destined to retreat from challenges and remain unnoticed or to reach out and glow with the brilliance of accomplishments.

Lions Are Swingin' Again

The 1977 Meadowdale High Golf Team is to be congratulated on their City Championship.

The Lions, led by low scorer Mike Charme, wrapped up the trophy convincingly.

They are a young team, of all sophomores and juniors, and Coach Boal expects next year to be even better.

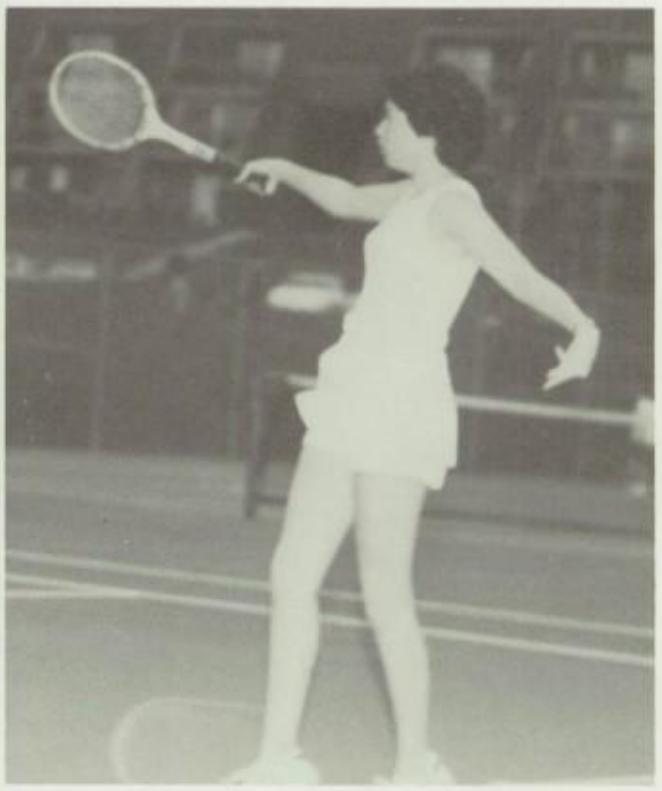
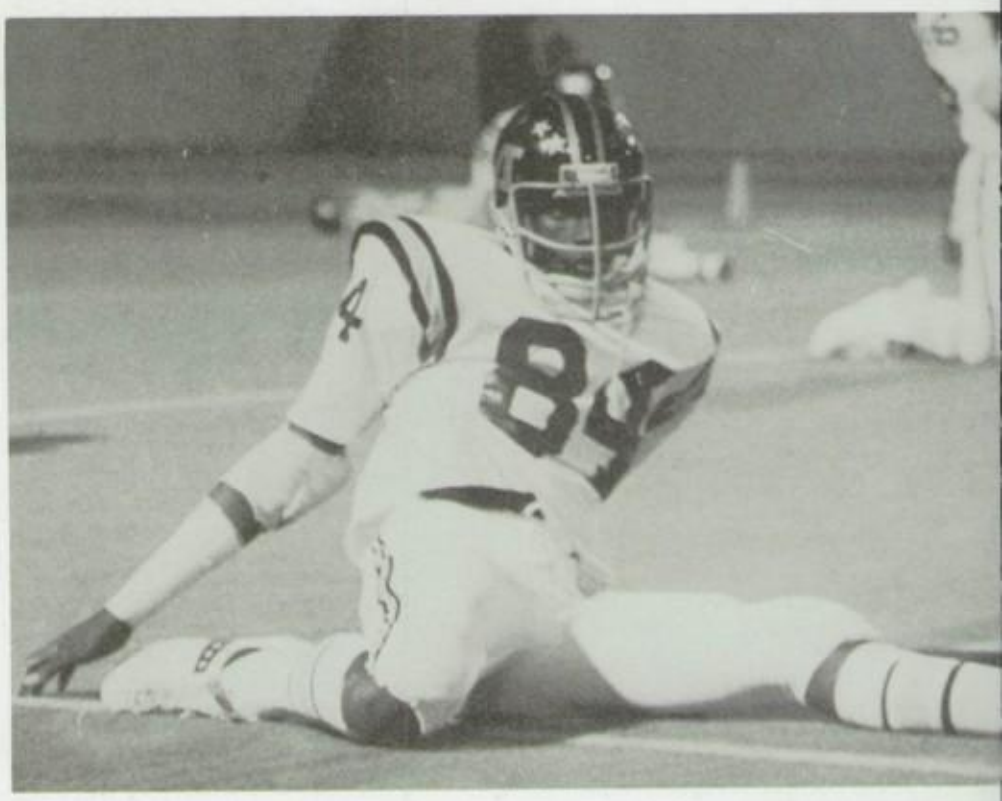
DOUBLES TEAMS



The 1977-78 Girls Varsity Team was very young and inexperienced. Jeannie Miller received the trophy for most improved player. We hope for an even better year next year.

City Champs Again!



The Lions, City Champions in 1976-77, have repeated with another superb performance in 77-78. With a lot of determination and hard work, this year's team extended their winning streak to 22 games and brought home a second consecutive city crown. "Many people counted us out after we graduated so many starters from '76," says Coach Kellar. "Our opponents had not counted on the tremendous amount of pride our younger athletes had in themselves and the program."

Led by such seniors as Richard Veal, Tim Weisman, Denver Smith, and Dave Manfreda, the Lions compiled a season record of 10 wins against no losses.

The "Hoop-Men" of the Meadowdale gave their loyal fans the most successful season any of them can remember. With a record of 18 wins against 3 losses, the Lions surprised everyone, especially Dayton sportswriters. The "Cinderella Team" of 1978 brought home a piece of the city crown for the second year straight, and reached the sectional finals in tournament play. With several shocking wins, the Lions earned the honor of placing 4 out of 5 starters on the All-City Teams. There are four seniors on the team, one of whom is on the starting line-up. Coach Hutson organized his talented young men and molded them into superstars. With pride and determination, with perseverance and hard work, next year is shaping up as a city and possibly a state triumph.

Homecoming '77

"Hello? . . . Yes, this is Sandy. . . . Oh, hi, Harold . . . Homecoming? I would love to go with you!! . . . When is it? . . . Oh, that's perfect. The Fairview game is Friday, October 21; the dance is Saturday, October 22. I'm so excited; I can hardly wait! . . . Well, I have to go, too. Bye, Harold. And thanks . . ."

Well, Sandy and Harold did go to Homecoming where everyone had a fantastic time. The theme was Nights on Broadway with Function providing the music for the dance floor. The night was a sure success and full of enthusiasm from Friday night's game against Fairview 50-14. Everyone had a wonderful time!

"You mean it's already a week before the play! We better get our lines and positions memorized. What?! Show time is in an hour and we don't have our make-up on yet! Oh, no . . . curtain goes up in 5 minutes."

"Ladies and gentlemen, we would like to present to you on November 18 and 19, 1977, the Senior Class Play entitled Forty Carats. Please sit back and enjoy the delightful comedy."

For those of you who were unfortunate and could not attend the play, the yearbook staff would like to give you a short digest.

Lights! Camera!
Action!

her daughter, Trina

her mother, Maud . . .

her secretary, Mrs. Margolin and her ex-husband, Billy Boylan

Once upon a time, there lived a lady by the name of Ann Stanley . . .

One day Ann meets 22-year-old Peter Lathem and they fall in love; however, Ann is 40.

But before Peter, there was Eddie Edwards.

ne day 17-year-old Trina and 44-year-old Eddie fall in love secretly, and want to et married.

eanwhile, Maud thinks Peter's reason for coming over all the time is to see Trina, ot Ann.

Word soon has it that Ann and Peter are getting married.

The next step for Ann is to meet Peter's folks. First Mr. Lathem . . .

And then Mrs. Lathem . . .

The time has come for Trina to say good-bye as she and Eddie are about t leave for Mexico to get married. We have also learned that Trina is pregnant.

But who would think charming Mrs. Lathem would have a fling with a 19-year-old golf pro? Oh, well!

And as our story ends here, Ann says good-bye to Billy Boylan to leave wit Peter to get married.

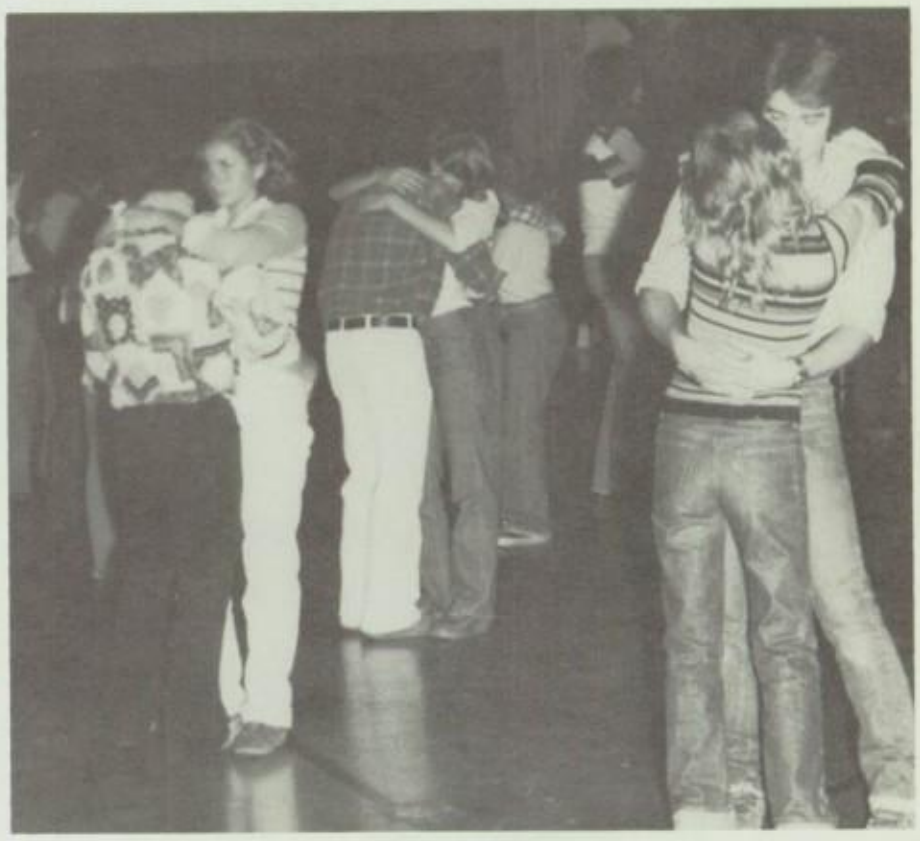
Turn-about Dance

On Friday, September 30, 1977, the Sophomore class sponsored a Turn-about dance. The girl-ask-guy switch was really different and a nice change of pace. It was held in the M.H.S. gym, and although the dress was supposed to be casual, the extremes went from long dresses and suits to old jeans and tee-shirts.

Victory Dance

Friday, November 11, 1977, was the date for the Victory Dance celebrating our perfect football record 10-0. The Juniors sponsored the dance held in the M.H.S. gym and a D.J. played disco hits for our enjoyment. Everyone who went knows it was a definite success.



Spirit Week

The halls of Meadowdale echoed from the shouts of class and school spirit during Spirit Week, January 9-13. Despite the pressure of the other classes, the basketball game against Fairview bound a tight togetherness through the school. Winners of Spirit Week contest were: 1st place — Seniors, 2nd place — Freshmen, 3rd place — Sophomores, and 4th place — Juniors.

Band

The Meadowdale High School Marching Band, Lionettes, Flag Corps, and Majorettes performed at every football game. They went to Band Camp for a week at Needmore Park at the end of August. In September they performed at the Montgomery County Fair and marched in the Holiday at Home Parade the following day. They participated in the Ball State Band Day in Muncie, Indiana, and went to Wilmington, Ohio to perform at a Wilmington College game. They entered the Chaminade-Julienne Marching Band Contest and received an "excellent" rating. They made the Lima game an overnight trip, and the next day they performed at the Ohio Northern University game. To end the season, the Band held the Last Roar at which they performed all the big hits of the season.

Mrs. Gounaris — Advisor

The Yearbook staff is responsible for putting together the Lions' Pride Yearbook and fall supplement. All members of the staff must have an A average in English and also must pass an interview given by the previous year's editor and advisor. The staff attends a Yearbook Workshop every summer at Morehead State University in Morehead, Kentucky. The staff spends a week there attending classes and lectures on how to put together a yearbook.

Student Council

The Student Council plans the Homecoming Dance, Spirit Week, class officer elections, and the elections for Dino, the school mascot. Student Council officers are selected by popular vote in the Spring. The representatives are elected from their homerooms.

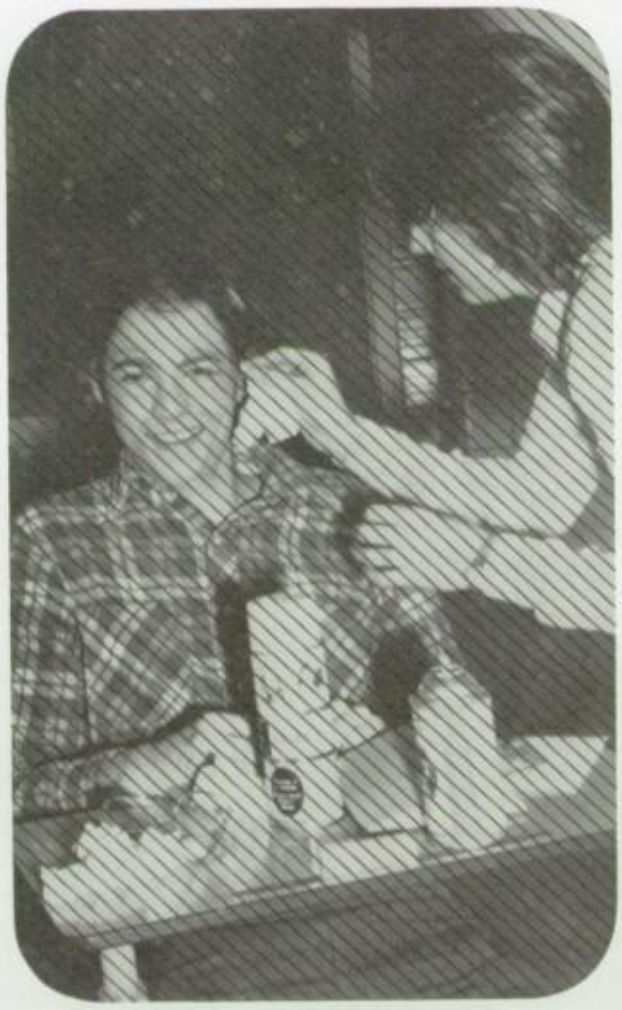
HOME ROOM

The Senior Faces



THE CLASS OF 78

The four years of high school are the ones that bring the most change in our lives — from almost children to almost adults, ready to enter the world. High school is a microcosm representative of that world, and it is an excellent opportunity to learn the value of unity — of teamwork and cooperation. The class of 1978 is an example of a group which has learned that unity.

We entered Meadowdale in the fall of 1974, our enrollment of 625 making us the largest class up to that time; all of us individuals who didn't know each other — a diverse, desperate group undefined by common interests or goals and further alienated by the newness of the surroundings. Because of the wide range and scope of people in such a large class, we at first found it difficult to work together as one. Our first task as a group was to elect officers. For our Freshman year, we selected as President, Stephanie Kanistros; Vice-President, David Brackman; Secretary, Sheri Sable; Treasurer, Karmen Johnson; Historian, Valerie Gianopulos; and Sergeant-at-Arms, John Prear. There were few activities possible for our still loose-knit group on unfamiliar ground, so our first year was spent primarily in adjusting to the world of high school and each other, preparing for any events we would later undertake as a whole.

The beginning of our Sophomore year found us without a president or secretary. In that unusual instance, new elections were held with the following results: President, David Brackman; Vice-President, Rhonda Jones; Secretary, Sharon Parker; Treasurer, Karmen Johnson; Historian, Valerie Gianopulos; and Sergeant-at-Arms, John Prear. Collection of dues was one of our major activities, along with car washes and bake sales. The funds acquired from these events provided some money toward the expenses of our Junior year, but more importantly they showed us the good in each other. Discovery of those common goals helped us to learn to work together more smoothly and set up lasting relationships.

An increased sense of belonging and financial troubles began our Junior year. Our new officers, President Leanne Sammons, Vice-President Lenny Newman, Secretary Laurie Jacoby, Treasurer Crystal Borum, Historian Valerie Gianopulos and Sergeant-at-Arms John Prear came forth with ideas to save our budget and collect money to finance the class play. Dues collecting was profitable that year, as were three other innovative projects: button sales, bake sales, and a donkey basketball game. Our first presentation for the stage, "Why Not Join the Giraffes," was very successful, providing much of the economic reality for the dream of the 1977 Junior-Senior Prom given by our class. The theme for the Prom, held at the Greek Orthodox Memorial Center, was "Colour My World." After dancing to the music of the band Flair, the afterprom was held at Kettering Recreation Center. Our officers and the Prom Committee were congratulated on their organizational ability to make the dream come true. The traditional class day in June of 1977 brought bittersweet thoughts to us as we realized the upcoming graduation of the last class before us. Many of our friends left us that summer, and our thoughts turned to our own graduation, now only a year away.

We had only one year left to leave some legacy for ourselves. There was a spirit about our class now, and we set out to prove it, starting with election of officers Leanne Sammons, President; Laurie Jacoby, Vice-President; Teri Holt, Secretary; Jamie Liakakos, Treasurer; Valerie Gianopulos, Historian; and John Rosenfeld, Sergeant-at-Arms. The first major event of our last year was Homecoming — "Nights on Broadway." The senior attendants were Richard Veal and Cheryl Black, and Dave Manfreda and Kim Johnson reigned as King and Queen. In November, we put on the play "Forty Carats." It was a huge success, one of the first plays in Meadowdale history to be considered for entry in a play contest. It was undoubtedly the finest stage performance ever given at Meadowdale. The enthusiasm and profits from the play helped bring about the annual swim party and dinner dance.

The final proof of our success came with the 1978 Spirit Week competition, won by our class. Achievement of that goal was perhaps the culmination of our high school years, for it symbolized our camaraderie and closeness. We won Spirit Week, but more importantly we were one. We were one at last. The relationships we built over the past years will last far beyond graduation. Our long search for unity was over. We had it.

High school is far more than a learning experience of strict academics alone; it is an experiment in meeting people, in coping with part of the vast world of differences and changes, and learning tolerance and acceptance. Now, at the close of that unique experience, each of us pronounces a benediction on it by his own reflections on that good life gone there. As the parchments are passed, memories come to mind, of classes and teachers, of friends and loves, of pep rallies and fire drills in the cold, of past hopes about the future and all that four years of life can give. Each diploma certifies the dive into a world where its bearer will sink or swim, but inevitably complete a life and leave some legacy. We, the class of 1978, have reached a milestone of life — perhaps the first, and we bring with us ourselves and an infinite number of warm memories, those pieces of Time and yesterday which will add a great dimension to enrich all our lives to come.

Congratulations to the Class of 1978!

The Athletic Department wishes to thank the students, parents and Booster's Club for their loyal support during the 1977-78 school year. We encourage all students to become involved in one of the fifteen inter-scholastic sports offered at Meadowdale. Your high school years will be more meaningful and enjoyable if you participate in athletics.

DOWD

How like the stars are these white, nameless faces — these far innumerable burning goals — this pale procession out of stellar spaces — this milky way of souls!

Reflection upon the past year proved to be quite an experience for both of us. It has been extremely frustrating at times, but we have also gained much satisfaction from the work put forth. We have faced numerous problems this year, as in every year, although they weren't financial. The snowy weather presented numerous drawbacks (to say the least). For example, the Mansfield Plant closed down due to weather with some of our underclassman pictures due in Dallas in a week. The Blizzard of '78 also caused us to be late with a deadline because the Postal Service was shut down. But thanks to the cooperation of the Taylor Publishing Company, we were able to present the book on time.

About the staff — well, at first when only two people showed up at a car wash this past summer, we did have our doubts. But the group as a whole came through for us, and thanks to that effort, we sold more ads than ever before in previous years and had the financial security enabling us to concentrate fully on the book itself.

The staff once again ventured down to "good old" Morehead State University this past summer for a Yearbook Camp workshop. Memories of miniature drive-ins, beautiful scenery, nicknames, our favorite saying, "Yearbooks are number 1!" and introducing the country folk to toilet-papering trees on campus, comes back to us all as we contemplate the week spent there. The staff gained intensive training for proper yearbook publication, resulting in a higher quality book for you, the reader.

For those on the staff who worked continually through the year, and for those who worked intensely, we thank you, for the book would not have been possible without contributions from the staff as a whole.

In this yearbook with our theme, Faces in the Crowd, we tried to give you a complete representation of perhaps one year in your high school life and to recognize the achievements of all who are affiliated with Meadowdale. Each student, teacher, and employee is a part of the high school experience. If anyone was forgotten, please excuse our mistakes for we are not professional publishers. But despite any mistake, we are extremely proud of this book and hope it brings enjoyment and possible retrospection in your years to come.

Mr. Youngerman,
I'm not one of your better students (I didn't have to tell you that.) But I've enjoyed being in this class. You're a good teacher, & have a nice + short Chemistry has been a letter with a short lesson for a teacher. Good luck in the years to come.

Mr. Youngerman,
To my favorite teacher
I just have a few things to say and-that is that I'm sorry for being a snot! I hope I will improve in my school work. (if you know what I mean)
Well I hope we can stay in touch!

Love ya,

Mr. Youngerman,
I am glad to say
I have enjoyed your class, even though we never really got much done in my class but talk!
Hope you have enjoyed our class as much as I have enjoyed you teaching it! Remember me always! (& know, how could you forget!) ☺

Mr. Youngerman
Even though I think I set the record for the most consecutive tests taken in your class, that were failed. I had a lot of laughs, & have a good year next year, and many more thereafter.

Mr. Youngerman,
well, after having you in chemistry can definitely say like your homeroom better, have a great summer, see ya next year.

Mr. Youngerman,
Thanks for having patience with me and sixth period & did learn three things this year ① How not to break test-tubes... ② How to enjoy yourself with out knowing it and ③ How to maintain a "D" average with out studying & cracking my brain to insanity...

Stay the way you are always know you'll need it because yo

Mr. Youngerman,
I want to say "Thanks" for having patience with our class (3rd) especially for putting up with my fits of impatience.
We've had a lot of fun & maybe even learned a little chemistry. As always Sandy Perkey

Mr. Youngerman,
I can't say I enjoyed the chemistry but I didn't mind the class or teacher. And sometimes I hate going to certain classes, but I don't mind coming to ~~the~~ chemistry. Since my sister had you I had heard about you from her. Don't ever forget me cause I don't think I'll forget you.

Love,
Sandy Howe

Mr. Youngerman
You have made chemistry different and a little easier. It took me a little time to get the hang but finally caught hold of it. Craig A. Wade to a nice guy and a good teacher. I am glad to have had the experience in meeting you.

MR. YOUNGERMAN

Mike Ba...
('79) enjoyed my senior year at M.H.S, even that impossible a lot more than how to "fudge-factor" no matter what those people say! Good luck in all your coming years. (I don't have a graduation coming up to look forward to)

Thanks for everything,
Mary Birt "78"

Mr. Youngerman,
After you being my bowling spectator, and also the only one, I was glad to have you as my chemistry teacher. Good luck in the future
Jeff DeBeo '79

Mr. Y
I'll be happy to tell you that there are no more Stotter's coming up. I hope that I will have a chance to test out your golf game Ha! Ha! Ha! I can tell you and so will my brother that you have helped us a great deal. Thanks!! Take care
